ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Preserving a rich history in the heart of gold country, Westwood Hills Memorial Park boasts residence of many early gold rush settlers. The "Meadow" is designated as a natural burial area. No machine manufactured headstones are used, only large natural stones are engraved with the information of your loved one.

Recently purchased by Ed Bixby, who owns four other cemeteries in other parts of the country, the cemetery has been in business for 70 years.

UNIQUENESS OF THE PROPERTY

Visitors to Westwood Hills can enjoy the tranquil parklike setting that includes water features and walking areas sure to soothe. The cemetery is surrounded by the El Dorado foothills near the El Dorado National Forest. Besides its natural beauty and immaculate upkeep, it offers many burial options. Choose a natural burial or traditional burial within designated sections of the property, burial in the memorial park or interment in a cremation garden, cremation niche or the mausoleum.
